St James Vision Statement: God asks us to make His love visible in our lives and community. . . . let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. (1 John 3:18)

From the St James Wardens

June 19, 2021

Dear Friends,

It is with mixed feelings that we have accepted Rev Lynne's resignation as she has accepted a call as Associate Rector to St Paul's Walnut Creek, California. Her last day will be Sunday, August 15 2021. She will host a potluck picnic at her home on St James' Day, Sunday July 25th following the Bishop's Visitation.

We express gratitude for the mutual ministry we have shared with Rev Lynne at St James. We have been blessed for the last seven years with Lynne's gifts of preaching, Bible Studies, knowledge of technology during COVID, administrative skills, office skills, and holding us each in prayer and being present in our hours of need. Rev Lynne has helped many of us develop our gifts for mission, ministry, and evangelism. We will miss her and pray for her in her future endeavors.

The Vestry will meet with Diocesan Dean Virginia Tyler-Smith on Wednesday, July 14 at 7:00 to talk about the Interim process and to outline the steps and information the congregation needs to develop to call a new Rector. The congregation will have support and guidance from the diocesan staff through the transition. The process of calling a new Rector does not begin until the current Rector leaves.

We believe in the power of the Holy Spirit who will be with us and guide us in the days to come. Please hold St James in your prayers.

Yours in Christ,

Nancy Folts, Senior Warden
Donella Barney, Junior Warden

From the Rector's Corner

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.” Joshua 1:9

I love you, and I will miss you, and I have been called to a new position as Associate Rector at St Paul's in Walnut Creek. Oh, how I have dreaded and anticipated saying these words to you. Life is never simple, or straightforward, or easy, or direct. And the life of the Spirit, well, she is a powerful force like a raging fire, or a swollen stream, and when we hear that call . . . John 3:8 reminds us, “The wind blows where it wishes and you hear the sound of it, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going; so is everyone born of the Spirit.”

Over the next few weeks, you are going to be reminded that YOU are St James, YOU have the gifts, and you also have been called to keep the Spirit alive. Everyone who walks through our front doors feels a welcome, and feels the spirit, the presence of God in this place. We are so blessed to have this community of faith. And I have been so blessed these past seven years to have been called to join you in the journey. Each one of you has filled my life with joy and hope and has increased my faith. As you well know, St James is a treasure.

However, like it or not, agree with it or not, when I leave the pastoral relationship ends. In part we continue to learn how to say goodbye, and that leaves us open to accept what comes next. And what a big surprise that will be as it happens! The diocesan staff will be working hard with the Vestry and the not-yet-created Search Committee to discover the next. That begins with a meeting on July 14th, and the process will begin in earnest after my departure. There will be a time of transition before you call another priest, and throughout the time of transition we pray that the spirit leads and guides and brings the right person at the right time. In the meantime, we pray, and trust that God will never leave or abandon us.

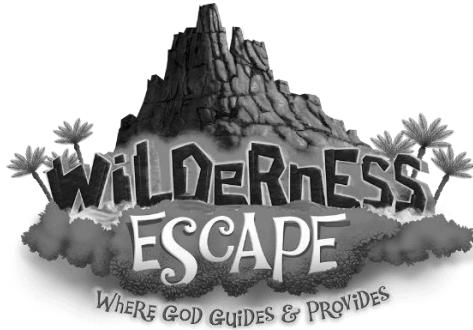

I look forward to meeting with each of you while I am still here. I will continue to pray for each of you by name every morning. I will be fully present to the ups and downs we all face each day, and the feelings that this transition brings. My last Sunday is August 15th, and I will host a pot-luck picnic at my home on July 25th on St James Day.

Peace,
Lynne+

This is also an opportunity for people to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, Reception or Reaffirmation.
